The Town We Live In...

I am Mortimer Q. Mouse on my monthly trip to Columbia City. You see, I have always lived in Whitley County, so of course I'm interested in the functions of the county seat. In these different stores are the businessmen who help support the different activities of the school. Without their help there would be no dances, Columbian, or any of the high school activities. It is with great admiration that I walk through these sacred streets of this city that has produced two governors and one vice president to the state and national governments. Yes, I am proud to be a citizen of such a community.

Signed,

Mort.

Foreword

Here is Columbia City High School!
This is where the boys and girls of Columbia City learn and work and play.

Besides helping the students prepare for their vocations, the school attempts to promote better social habits, and better sportsmanship.

Within these walls the students live some of the happiest days of their lives and experience some of their greatest triumphs and disappointments.

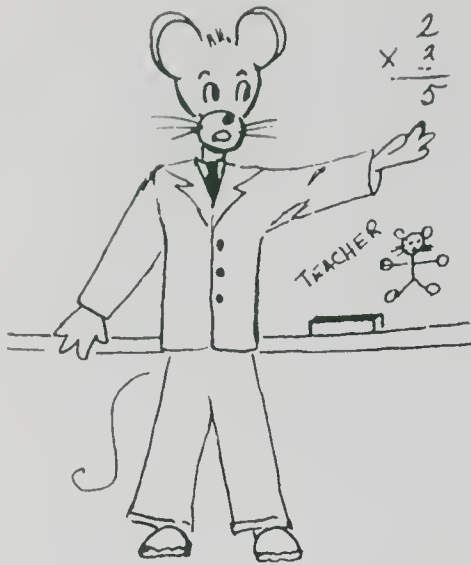

Columbia City High School is more than a school—it is a living memorial to its students. Their joys, their sorrows and their spirits make it the unforgettable place that it is.

Faculty

But the teachers' job is not all work and no play; by the looks of this, it seems as though this faculty party was all play. But they are deserving of some recreation after five days a week of trying to "learn" the students.

Mrs. Lois Murphy, Mr. Richard Duffield, Mrs. James Chaplin, Mr. Russell Bowman, and Mr. Wilfred Wilson rest between classes on the school steps.

Superintendent Arley G. Kerr

Superintendent Arley G. Kerr and the School Board work together to build a better school for the faculty, the student body, and the community.

Mrs. Joan Schrader Stayer (at left) serves ably as secretary to Mr. Kerr.

Principal Max Gandy

Here is the man to whom all troubles of the students, as well as those of the faculty, are brought . . . whose job it is to discipline, teach, and rule with an iron hand . . . but be a friend to all . . . the principal, Mr. Max Gandy.

Miss Bertha Thornburgh, Assistant Principal, listens as Mr. Max Gandy, Principal, explains new school rule. Mrs. Elaine Helfrich, Secretary, looks on.

Classes

Seniors

September, 1947, saw the entrance of one hundred and three freshmen into the halls of CCHS.

The class got off to a big start with a large representation in several of the extra-curricular activities. Dean Magley presided over the "freshies" with the assistance of Miss Bertha Thornburgh and Mr. Joe Shull, class sponsors.

Their sophomore year found Dick Phend pounding the gavel. The class centered its efforts on money raising projects, including a large magazine subscription drive. Time flew by and the "sophs" suddenly became juniors.

Paul Mast undertook the office of president and Mr. and Mrs. Shull teamed up as class sponsors. The subscription drive was repeated, and the funds were used to plan the reception in honor of the class of '50 in Potowatomi Inn at Pokagon State Park.

At last the class of '51 rounded the last corner and entered the home stretch with Darwin Eherenman presiding. The class sponsored the "Mistletoe Mixer" during the holidays. On May 4 the seniors were entertained by the juniors at South Shore Inn with the annual Junior-Senior Reception.

The seniors completed their high school careers with "Family Circle," presented on May 9 and 10; class night, May 18; bacca-laureate, May 20, and commencement, May 25.

The class chose as their flower, the American Beauty Rose; blue and silver were the class colors selected. With an eye for the future the class of '51 chose as their motto: "Life is what you make it."

I have just been over-hearing Jim Schang, the class of '52's president, outline the class's highlights for their Junior year. Gosh, they sure were kept busy selling magazine subscriptions, sponsoring a cake walk and a dance—all to raise money for the Junior-Senior Reception. The Reception was held on May 4, at the South Shore Inn, Lake Wawasee. Charlie Rogers of Elkhart furnished the music.

Assisting Jim at the meeting were Max Murphy, vice president, while Rheta Rumsyre read the minutes. The money was kept by Elaine Bechtold.

Miss Carolyn Metzger and Mr. Roy Kilby directed the Juniors through '50 and '51.

Sophomore

Class Officers: Shirley Gruver, Mr. Oris DeVol, Regina Hawthorne, Joan Jagger, Mrs. Lois Murphy, Fred Martz.

Boo! Here I am again looking at the no longer green but Sophisticated Sophomores! The Sophomore Class was quite busy preparing the financial end of things for the big Junior-Senior Reception next year.

All work and no play make Jack and Jill dull people, so they had their fun too. On January 18, between semesters, a party was held at the City Hall.

The officers of the sophomores of 1951 were Fred Martz, president; Shirley Gruver, vice-president; Regina Hawthorne, secretary; Joan Jagger, treasurer.

Freshman

Class Officers: Jackie Hunt, Mr. Wilfred Wilson, Nancy Sewell, Larry Trimmer, Miss Bernice Carver, Jim Neill.

As I was walking down the hall I bumped into Larry Trimmer, the president who steered the 103 greenies. He gave me the dope on the other officers—Jimmie Neill was the "Veep," Nancy Sewell, secretary; and Jackie Hunt was treasurer.

When I asked him what the class had done he replied, "Well, Mort, The Sadie Hawkins Day Dance held at the City Hall following the Bluffton game on November 17 was about the only big thing."

Larry just had time to tell me that Mr. Wilfred Wilson and Miss Bernice Carver served as sponsors before I went dashing off. You see—I taut I taw a puddy tat!

Betty Gillespie, winner of the McLallen Contest, speaks at a meeting of Forum.

Taking time out from classes long enough for a little enjoyment, nearly all of the students are members of at least one club.

Activities

Booster Club

Another home game finds me and my empty stomach at the Booser Club concession stand! This is one of the club's most important functions. Convocations for the student body are sponsored by this group with funds made from ticket sales and profit from concessions. To boost the team's spirit the mighty 15 plan pep sessions for games at home. Again Miss Stultz is their faithful sponsor. Her helpers this year were June Hicks and Joe Peters, co-presidents.

Membership consists of two freshmen, three sophomores, four juniors and six seniors who are elected by their respective classes. So I have satisfied my empty tummy and, I hope, your curious minds.

Standing: Mary Orr, Margaret Gustafson.

Sitting, back row: Joe Peters, Jerry Armel, Betty Gephart, June Hicks, Carol Hancock, Barbara Wolfe, Bonald Cole, Dick Fahl, Miss Stultz.

Choir

The activities of the choir were spiced with variety this year. During the first semester they sang for back-to-school night. Then at Thanksgiving they presented both a broadcast and a convocation.

The air rang with the voices of the choir caroling at Christmas. Another broadcast was held and a Holy Night float of carolers was featured in the Santa Claus Parade.

Two concerts were presented during the second semester. The choir exchanged programs with neighboring schools.

Baccalaureate was the grand finale of the choir's activities for the year.

Helen Miller and Dick Rondeau assisted the director, Mrs. Hazel Munns. Sara Coy and Norma Jean Souder served as secretaries, with June Jones serving as librarian. Steve Spence and Don Wineland were in charge of robes and Verlin Hile acted as stage manager. The choir was accompanied by Donna Gerdes and Elaine Bechtold.

Columbian

As I sauntered past room seventeen, I was shocked to hear someone shout "Dummy!" Thinking that the remark was directed to me, I lingered near the door.

I soon discovered, to my relief, that the "dummy" was a duplicate copy of the "Columbian."

This year the sixteen members of the staff were divided into two groups. The editorial staff, led by Betty Shroyer and Max Murphy, wrote copy and planned the year book. This staff received much assistance from the high school journalism class.

Commercial Club

My! Look at their fingers go!

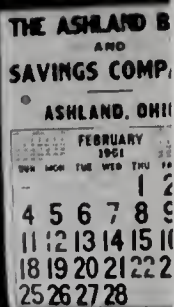

They have to, if they want to get into Commercial Club. You see, the requirement to be a member is to type 45 net words per minute on a ten minute test with five or less errors; or to take dictation of at least 60 words per minute for five minutes and transcribe the notes with 98% accuracy.

But they didn't work all the time. The club sponsored a dance and gave a skating party as well as having regular monthly business meetings at which different speakers told of their occupations. Some of these were: Joan Schrader, secretary; Mrs. Kathleen Conwell, teacher; Mr. Gillespie, a newspaper man. They also sponsored a movie, "World Series of 1950," in January.

During the second semester the club took different tours of the businesses around town to see just what went on behind the scenes. To climax a very eventful year, the annual banquet was held Wednesday, May 16.

Lois Fisher served as president for the 1950-51 Commercial Club and when she was absent Marceil McElroy took her place. The minutes were kept by Kay Woll and Thelma McCullough took care of the money matters. Mr. Richard Duffield kept everything under control by serving as sponsor of the club.

The Eagle

Now here we are in room 17, the headquarters of the fifteen people who are taking journalism this year. They make up the backbone of the Eagle and hold the key staff positions.

Up these stairs is the Eagle's Nest. It looks pretty nice, doesn't it? That's because the journalism class painted it as a special project. These people are just full of special projects. You should see the covered ten-page Christmas Eagle done in three colors.

Those busy people are Sarah Ruth Brown, editor-in-chief the first semester, and Gloria Glass, editor-in-chief the second semester. Over there is Mrs. Kathleen Conwell, the advisor of the Eagle. And the busy fellow is Dick Morsches, with Margaret Jenkinson who served as business and circulation managers for the first and second semesters. Earleen Kniss kept things running smoothly as assistant editor.

Come on, let's leave. These people are busy trying to get this week's paper out.

Boys' League

I, Mortimer, although very busy, always attended the basketball games of the Boys' League every Monday and Tuesday nights.

About sixty boys who were divided into eight teams participated in the League.

Each team has a captain, a senior, who handles the management of his own ball club. The captains and teams of Boys' League of 1951 were Nationals, Glenn Will; Capitals, Jerry Armel; Nuggets, John Ginter; Royals, Joe Myers; Black Hawks, Jerry Gruver; Olympians, DeWayne Anderson; Pistons, Eugene Jagger; Lakers, Frank Neidigh.

At the close of basketball season, the League held a double-elimination tournament. The champions and runners-up were taken to a Zollner Piston professional basketball game.

The senior showing the best sportsmanship during the tourney was awarded the annual sportsmanship award.

Having watched the boys play on Mon-day and Tuesday nights, I stayed in the gym-nasium again on Wednesday night to observe the gals during their GAA games.

In addition to the customary volleyball and basketball, Mrs. James Chaplin super-vised a six weeks bowling project. The girls also participated in several play days.

The GAA officers were Gloria Glass, president; Mary Orr, vice president, and Rheta Rumsyre, secretary-treasurer.

At the honor convocation Mrs. Chaplin president; Mary Orr, vice president; and ers, and the coveted sportmanship award.

Spanish Club

Hola, Señores y Señoritas. Here I am at the third meeting of "El Club del Español," This meeting is being held at Margaret Jenkinson's home. What fun! The members of the club are now discussing the initiation which was held on January 4 at the home of Dick Morsches.

Six meetings of Spanish Club were held this year over which la Señorita Darlene Egloff presided and el Señor Paul Mast acted as vice-president and treasurer. La Señorita Carolyn Metzger acted as sponsor.

Inter Nos

Hi! Here I am scampering away from the school building after a small group of people. We are going to one of their houses. It is the fourth Thursday of the month and the small group of fellows and girls are Latin students going to Inter Nos.

This year the Latin students read, in English, a play written by the Roman author, Plautus. The club also planned to act out a Roman marriage and style show. In the second semester, sophomores, interested in Latin, were voted in by a majority vote.

Officers elected this year were:

Consul: Dean Lawrence.

Pro-consul: Max Murphy.

Scribe: Barbara Neill.

Quaestor: Shirley Orr.

Latin Club was organized last year by the third year students for the purpose of interesting more people in Latin. Miss Thornburgh is the sponsor.

Row 1: Joan Pritchard, Arlene Loxley, Shirley Orr, Barbara Neill, Margaret Gustafson, Delma Myers.

By now you know that I'm from the country and, well, I liked seeing some of my own friends. These friends are the young farmers of America. They usually meet in the Agriculture room on Monday the seventh period.

Our activities started October 24 when the officers attended the District Training School held at Larwill. Also along with our training comes the country judging contest. We had boys from each township compete in livestock, dairy, poultry, and crops.

On December 19 we had a skating party with the FHA at the local skating rink. December 18 we started our annual pest contest; it lasted until January 5. The total points accumulated were 263,864. Richard Alexander had the most points, 42,750; Glen Rathbun was second with 26,500.

As for individual honor there were Tom Cormany and Dick Smith who wrote essays for the Swift and State FFA contests. Eugene Jagger and Dick Smith tried for their Hoosier Farmers Degree. Also we sent two boys to the FFA State Convention.

We planned a parent and son banquet and to take part in the district banquet. The chapter also published the District News Letter. Along the entertainment line we held our annual ping-pong tourney in April.

As money-making schemes we sponsored a movie, sold garden seeds, and had a strawberry patch.

The officials for the club are: Joe Myers, president; Fredric Martz, vice-president; Eugene Jagger, secretary; Dick Smith, reporter; LeRoy Hawn, sentinel; and Leon Alter, advisor.

Row 1: Franklin Clifford, Marvin Bridegan, Eugene Jagger, Edgar Johnson, Vernon Grambrell, Michael Frank, John Frank, Glen Rathbun, Bob Zumbrun.

F. H. A.

Here's a good place to look for my wife—

The Future Homemakers of America is the national organization of pupils studying home-making in the junior and senior high schools of the United States and Territories. As an integral part of the program of home economics in the schools of America, it offers opportunity for the further development of pupil initiative in planning and carrying out activities related to homemaking.

Future Homemakers of America is an incorporated, non-profit youth organization. It came into being through the cooperative efforts of youth enrolled in homemaking in secondary schools to build a national organization of their own in which they might develop social qualities and promote better home life for its members and their families.

The Columbia City Chapter is proud of its enrollment. For several years it has been the largest high school chapter in Indiana. "And I might add—they can bake the 'best-est' pies and cakes too."

The officers for FHA this year are Charlotte Zumbrun, president; Helen Miller, vice president; Helen Tagtmeyer, secretary, and DeMaris Jagger, treasurer.

Row 1: Joan Felger, Jackie Hunt, Marjory Yaney, Charity Meyer, Beverly Gregg, Mary Orr, Shirley Gruver, Mary Lou Shalk, David Fisher.

Why do you suppose all those kids are coming to school tonight? And they're all headed for room 16, too. Let's see—this is Tuesday, so it might be a Forum meeting. Think I'll go take a look. . . .

Boy, was that ever neat! I sneaked in right behind that girl and no one saw me. Now maybe I can discover what this is all about.

Well, from what I hear it seems that Forum, consisting this year of forty-three members, is an organization which encourages interest and training in debate. However, several club members who are interested in general public speaking, too, centered their efforts on orations, humorous and dramatic readings, and poetry, as well as debate. Throughout the year debates, speeches, and roundtable discussions served as the basis for the club's weekly meetings. On January 23 and 30, and February 6 and 13, the club sponsored a local debate tourney.

The members of the club competed also in invitational tournaments at North Manchester, on November 4; North Side of Fort Wayne, November 18; Howe Military Academy, December 9; here in Columbia City, January 13, and Indiana State Teachers College, January 20.

During the school year of 1950-51, Forum was presided over by DeWayne Anderson with June Hicks, his able assistant; Paul Mast read the roll and recorded the minutes while Rheta Rumsyre balanced the books. The club's activities were carried on under the guiding hand of Miss Bertha Thornburgh.

N. F. L.

Now folks, on your left is room 16, the meeting place of the National Forensic League, unless they meet at a member's home. The meetings are held the first Thursday of each month. Miss Bertha Thornburgh sponsors this organization, too. The NFL chapter is seventeen years old this May. I was talking to the president, Bob Kellogg; the vice-president, Sarah Ruth Brown; and the secretary, Earleen Kniss, who said that the purpose of NFL is to promote interest in interscholastic debate, oratory, and public speaking.

At the beginning of the year this group started its activities with only the seven members remaining from last year. Ten students, having sufficient points to enroll, were invited to join. A hilarious informal initiation was held on December 10. It consisted of a questioning period. All ten withstood the tests and were then accepted into the club. Later at a solemn service they were formally initiated, receiving the club flowers, certificates, and pins.

To make N. F. L. points, students must participate in interscholastic contests. Twenty points must be earned before a student is eligible. Degrees are given for accumulated points. The degrees are merit, honor, excellence, and distinction. Those holding the degree of distinction are Betty Gillespie and Sarah Ruth Brown; degrees of excellence, Betty Shroyer, Bob Kellogg, and Barbara Wolfe; degree of honor, June Hicks, June Jones, Earleen Kniss, Dean Lawrence, Max Murphy, Mary Orr, Jim Schang; and the degree of merit are DeWayne Anderson, Dick Armstrong, Marjorie Gillespie, Barbara Gustafson, and Martha Luckenbill.

Press Club

Seated: Mrs. Kathleen Conwell, Adviser.

Press Club, which was organized in 1934, is an honorary club for outstanding journalists of the school's newspaper, The Eagle. Six members answered the roll call at Press Club meetings this year.

Earleen Kniss presided over the club's meetings and was ably assisted by Max Murphy. Martha Luckenbill acted as secretary and Mrs. Kathleen Conwell advised the organization.

The year's activities of Press Club were brought to a close in May, when the annual Press Club and Quill and Scroll banquet was held.

Quill and Scroll

Another one of those honorary organizations they briefed me on was Quill and Scroll.

It seems Quill and Scroll is an international journalistic organization. By the way, these people met the "stiff" qualifications: Joe Myers, June Hicks, Gloria Glass, Dick Morsches, Rheta Rumsyre, Jim Schang, Margaret Jenkinson, Sarah Ruth Brown, and Earleen Kniss.

The big shindig of the year resulted in the merging of Press Club and Quill and Scroll in the annual Press Club banquet.

Sunshine Society

One of my favorite pastimes was watching the girls of Sunshine Society living up to their motto: "Service to others."

New members had an informal initiation and then a solemn candlelight formal initiation.

During the holidays the girls were busy giving Christmas baskets to the poor, selling cards to earn money, and the annual event of decorating the tree in the lower hall.

Riley Hospital received scrap books made by the girls. Tag-day, in early spring, helped raise the money for the Riley Hospital fund.

Every year a nurse's scholarship award is received by one of the members. Patricia Bridegam won the award for 1950.

Several girls also attended the district convention at Goshen and the state convention at New Haven. Two girls were also chosen to attend the state Sunshine camp.

Charlene Beard capably fulfilled her duties as president. Other officers of the society were Lois Krider, vice president; Elaine Bechtold, secretary; and Thelma McCullough, treasurer. Miss Mary Henderson served as sponsor for the club.

Hi-Y

The Columbia City chapter of Hi-Y this year consisted of 21 members—nine seniors, seven juniors, and five sophomores. Bi-weekly meetings were held by the organization on Tuesday during the seventh period to discuss problems and finances.

The activities of this year's Hi-Y centered around the visiting of various local churches which Hi-Y members attended.

John Ginter ably presided over meetings of the Hi-Y, and Joe Peters served as vice president. Richard Fahl was the club's secretary, while Joe Egolf was in charge of collecting the dues. John Hancock was selected chaplain, and Ben Coy kept order as sergeant-at-arms.

Oris DeVol, Columbia City high school athletic director, again sponsored the organization.

 Row 2: Miss Carolyn Metzger, Advisor; Barbara Gustafson, Barbara Nelson, Marceil McElroy, Darlene Egloff, Mary Lou Schalk, Nancy Boggs.

Dramatic Art Club

Here are the future movie stars!

The Dramatic Art Club was quite busy this year. They gave three radio broadcasts, one on Thanksgiving, "Legend of 1778," one at Christmas, "The Unfriendly Village," and another, "The Man Without a Country."

Miss Carolyn Metzger also very ably directed a three act comedy, "Rest Assured." The leads of the cast were Dick Armstrong, Barbra Gustafson, Marceil McElroy, Charlene Beard, Darlene Egloff, Art Foltz, and Bob Kellogg. Afterwards a party was held at the Armstrong home for the cast.

The group presented an April Fools' Day Convocation and made a trip to Fort Wayne to see "Oklahoma" and another to Warsaw to attend the Junior Class Play, "You Can't Take It With You."

Senior Class Play

"Guess I'll go see what's cookin' in the auditorium. . . . Well, what do you know! I've hit the jackpot again. There is the senior play cast rehearsing for the May 9 and 10 performances of "Family Circle," a dramatization by Anne Coulter Martens from the book by Cornelia Otis Skinner.

This year the major parts were double cast, with each person playing one night.

The cast was as follows:

Cornelia Otis Skinner	Marceil McElroy
	Charlene Beard
Maud Skinner	Sarah Ruth Brown
	June Hicks
Otis Skinner	Darvin Eherenman
	Bob Kellogg

Mab	Vonna Loxley
	Darlene Egloff
Enid	Sharon Webber
	Nancy McClain
Charlie	Joe Peters
	DeWayne Anderson
Amy	Barbra Gustafson
	Norma Jean Souder
Grace	Marjorie Johnson
	Charlotte Zumbrun
William	Chick Harker
	Jim May
Henry	Bonald Cole
Gordon	Paul Mast
Abby	Donna Jeanne Holbrook

Standing: Bob Kellogg, Miss Bertha Thornburgh, Max Murphy.

Varsity Debate

Hm . . . I wonder where those voices are coming from here in the school house. This intrigues me! I might as well become a second Sherlock Holmes again and see if I can track them down.

From the lower hall? No. The assembly? Huh-uh! Guess I'll try the senior hall. Well, guess what? I've done it again! There in room 16 is the varsity debate team receiving a pep talk from the coach, Miss Bertha Thornburgh.

This year the debate question was, "Resolved that the American people should reject the welfare state." This question involved the benefits and disadvantages of the so-called "hand-out" government.

Bob Kellogg and Max Murphy upheld the affirmative while Betty Gillespie and Sarah Ruth Brown constituted the negative team.

The team worked steadily all year with the regular state debate tourney at North Manchester and the N. F. L. finals at Hammond High School on April 20 and 21 as their goals.

Marching Band

Whew! I'm tired! I've been running up and down the athletic field for an hour watching the CCHS marching band rehearse. I'd like to tell you about a few of the things the marching band did this year. But first, maybe I'd better tell you about the band's new director, Mr. Ross Davis.

Mr. Davis graduated from Collinwood High School, Cleveland, Ohio, in 1939. He went to Ohio University for two years and then served a three year period in the army. After his army service, he returned to Ohio University and completed his music major. Before coming to Columbia City, Mr. Davis taught two years in the high school at Tama, Iowa.

Besides marching at all the home football games, the band traveled to Warsaw to participate in the half-time show of the CC-Warsaw game. On October 16 they again journeyed to Warsaw—this time for the state marching contest. CC's drum major, Dick Morsches, was highly honored by being named outstanding drum major of the evening.

On November 18 the band was taken to Indiana University to participate, along with 113 other groups, in a half-time massed band event.

I had a lot of fun at the Halloween Festival sponsored by the Band Parents and held in October. The CCHS Music Makers provided the music for the affair.

The last thing of the year for the marching band was the Christmas parade held in December.

Mr. Ross Davis directs the band in one of its early morning practices.

Concert Band

My! What's all that noise in the school house this time of evening? Oh, I see! It's the CCHS concert band under the direction of their new director, Mr. Ross Davis.

On February 17, several members of the band traveled to Fort Wayne for the district solo and ensemble contest. The sixteen members who emerged victorious from that contest entered the state competition at Indianapolis on March 17. March 31 found the entire band journeying to New Haven to compete in the district concert contest.

1st Row: Dick Morsches, Earleen Kniss, Shirley Orr, Vonna Loxley, Carolyn King, Arline Loxley and Rheta Rumsyre.

The band presented two concerts during the year—the Christmas concert, and a spring pop concert.

Several band members went to South Whitley on March 4 to participate, along with band members from all over the county, in the annual County Band Festival.

As a money making project, the band sponsored a dance, "Swing and Slow" on January 19.

Dick Morsches was an able band captain this year and Norma Jean Souder served well as first lieutenant.

4th Row: Beverly Benzinger, Skip Sours, Larry Holbrook, and Dave Fisher.

Varsity Football

As I have been working hard during the summer I decided to take a vacation and see how the varsity football team came out. I met Coach Joe Tofil and his assistant, Richard Duffield, in the athletic office and their story went like this:

On August 15 we called a meeting of the varsity players at which about forty-five boys responded. Some of these were heavy, others light; some were fast, others slow. But after two long weeks of practice, 29 boys were selected to make the trip to New Haven for the season opening; New Haven won . . . 18-6.

- The rest of the season went like this:
- | | |
|---------------------|------------------|
| CC. 28 Nappanee 8 | CC. 12 Garrett 6 |
| CC. 37 Royerton 6 | CC. 13 Auburn 21 |
| CC. 20 Concordia 13 | CC. 12 Decatur 6 |
| CC. 7 Bluffton 13 | CC. 6 Warsaw 34 |

As the season ended the Eagles' record was five wins and four losses; in the NEIC, two wins and four losses. The Eagles scored 138 points and the individual scores were:

D. Rondeau	36	J. Schang	7
B. Coy	30	D. Gregory	6
D. Lemmon	18	D. Phend	6
R. Rondeau	18	J. Hancock	3
J. Myers	12	T. Montgomery	2

At the conference meeting held in Fort Wayne, Richard Fahl and Joe Myers were voted on the all-conference; Frank Neidigh, second team, and Benny Coy were given honorable mention. Fahl and Myers made honorable mention on the state team; they were also voted by the coaches to be given the honor of co-captains.

 Row 2: Ben Coy, Rich Fahl, John Ginter, DeWayne Anderson, Joe Egolf, Dean Lemmon.
 Row 3: Joe Peters, Byron Belcher, Tony Montgomery, Joe Myers, Jim Sewell, Bob Kellogg.

First Fourteen Players

 2nd row: Ben Coy, Byron Belcher, Joe Myers.
 3rd row: DeWayne Anderson, Joe Egolf, Dick Fahl.
 4th row: Dick Phend, Jerry Gruver.
 Bottom row: Bob Kellogg, Frank Neidigh, Bonald Cole.

These fourteen players were the nucleus of the 1950 football varsity team. Each of them made an appearance in almost every game played. Their success would not have been as great had it not been for the advice of their coaches, the help of the student managers, and the moral assistance from the cheerleaders and fans. On this page, then, is found the mainstay of CCHS football—1950.

Freshman Football

While I was talking to Coaches Joe Tofil and Richard Duffield about varsity football, Coach Earl Arnold came in and started bragging about his freshman team. They did have a good season: they won five and lost none. CC's victims were:

New Haven	6-13
Bluffton	0-41
Goshen	12-25
Payne, Ohio	26-27
Howe	6-45

The leading individual scoring went like this:

Ed Line	48
---------	----

Don Phend	48
Tom Winks	18
Richard Wolfe	15

I asked Coach Earl Arnold what was the idea behind Freshman football. Freshman football is carried on in CCHS to serve as a background for the varsity team. On the freshman team the boys are taught the fundamentals of blocking, tackling, and other necessities of the game. All plays are of varsity caliber so the boys step right into various positions their sophomore year on the varsity squad.

Row 1: Jim Neill, Jack Will, David Fisher, Dennie Lemmon, Bill Bryan, Phil Blanchard, Larry Lang.

Row 2: Bill Dwight, Tom Winks, Jack Schang, Ronald Egolf, Russel Wolfe, Danny Ainslie, Jim Weeks.

Varsity Basketball

The Columbia City Eagles, crippled by the loss of seven seniors from the 1950 squad, had a quiet season with four wins and 16 losses.

The Eagles defeated Larwill, 71-58 in the first sectional game but were eliminated by Etna Green, 63-40.

Tom Coy, a senior, paced the Eagles for the season with 223 points. The individual scoring of the other squad members was as follows: Dick Phend, 186; Verlin Hile, 126; Don Phend, 107; Joe Peters, 99; Bill Kettelkamp, 77; Dean Lemmon, 52; Paul Mast, 14; John Hancock, 12.

The results of the season were:

South Whitley 41	Columbia City 38
Butler 67	Columbia City 58

Columbia City 41	Bluffton 37
North Manchester 63	Columbia City 58
Columbia City 58	Concordia 52
Kendallville 67	Columbia City 32
Nappanee 62	Columbia City 50
Pierceton 37	Columbia City 25
New Haven 56	Columbia City 43
Decatur 75	Columbia City 28
Columbia City 38	Albion 35
Huntington Catholic 48	Columbia City 45
North Webster 68	Columbia City 57
Milford 47	Columbia City 46
Garrett 60	Columbia City 54
Auburn 71	Columbia City 37
Elmhurst 45	Columbia City 35
Warsaw 68	Columbia City 63

Second Team Basketball

Second row: Dick Phend, Paul Mast, Tom Coy, Joe Peters.

Third row: Dean Lemmon, Dick Rondeau, John Hancock.

The second team, a proving ground for potential first-string material, consisted of nine sophomores and one junior. The team, coached by Earl Arnold, won eight games and lost twelve.

High point man for the seconds was Junior Zumbrun with 114 points marked up by 39 field goals and 36 free throws.

Dick Rondeau became second highest scorer with 25 field goals and 24 free throws bringing his total to 74 points.

The second team members are coached on basic fundamentals and principles of play.

 Standing: David Fisher, Larry Holbrook, Graham Kleespie, Jim Weeks, John Feit, Jim Sooy, Frank Myers, Tom Winks, Coach Roy Kilby.

Freshman Basketball

The Freshman basketball squad, coached by Roy Kilby, is set up to introduce the game to the members of the freshman class interested in becoming varsity players.

This year the squad won two and lost nine games.

The experience gained in actual participation in the game is more important than the scores.

Basic rules are stressed by Coach Kilby and the frame work is laid for future work on the second and varsity teams.

Left to right, row 1: Frank Neidigh, Dick Phend, Ben Coy, Joe Peters, Tom Coy, Bob Kellogg.
Row 2: Dick Rondeau, Tony Montgomery, Dean Lemmon, Don Rondeau, and Coach Earl Arnold.

Track

What on earth are those boys doing?

A second closer look led me to know it was the track team practicing for this full schedule of games they had before them:

April 2	Garrett
April 4	Pierceton-North Manches- ter
April 6	Howe Military Academy
April 11	Decatur
April 13	Concordia
April 16	Nappanee
April 17	Bluffton
April 19	Kendallville
April 21	Goshen Relays

April 23	Churubusco-South Whitley
April 25	At Warsaw
April 27	New Haven
May 2	NEIC
May 12	Sectional at Huntington
May 19	Regional at Kokomo
May 26	State at Indianapolis

Eighteen lettermen were lost through graduation last year and only five remained to defend the NEIC championship title. Dick Phend, Tom Coy, Ben Coy, Joe Peters, and Frank Neidigh, returning lettermen, formed the nucleus of the squad.

Top: "One, two, three" . . . The football boys are putting in their daily dozen.

Third row: Joan Breisch, John Hancock, Rheta Rumsyre, and Betty Gillespie prove their candy-making abilities in chemistry class. . . . Dick Fahl, Dean Lemmon, John Ginter, and Jim Schang demonstrate a bit of football strategy.

Let's take just one last look at Columbia City—its growing business district, the state-ly old courthouse, the friendly townspeople, and the school that is producing the citizens of tomorrow— a swell place in which to live.

As I leave town on U.S. 30 at the right I can see the city park, typical of the carefree life of schooldays; and on the left is the athletic field, reminiscent of past victories and defeats. Ahead is the open road—a land of opportunity—new worlds to conquer. Any of you seniors like to hitch a ride?
